was a agitation in Jamia Millia Islamia following a judgement of Delhi .High Court striking down certain reservations in admissions. The demand raised was to bring about certain amendments in lamia Millia Islamia Act to emphasize its distinctive historical character. As the questions relating to grant of minority status to educational institutions, including Universities, are currently subjudice before an 11-Judge Bench of the Supreme Court, a decision on these issues by the Government would not be possible at this stage.

Sports Polley

1179. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL. Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

1180. SHRI BRAHMAKUMAR BHATT: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether his attention has been drawn to the news-item entitled Launched with fanfare, many Government schemes ended up as farce' appeared in the Times of India dated 16th May, 1997;

(b) if so, the details of such schemes poorly implemented or not implemented at all by Government;

(c) whether the matter has been examined in detail at his level; and

(d) if so, with what result?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI S.R BOMMAI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) There is no such scheme. Basically the news-item which has been referred to in part (a) of the question is about Mahila Samridhi Yojana (MSY). The scheme is being recast due to high operational cost.

(c) and (d) The scheme was examined in detail at Ministry and Planning Commission level. The High-Power Committee constituted by the Planning Commission on MSY recommended that no new MSY account should be opened after 1.4.97 and that the Department would recast the scheme by creating women's groups and involving them in saving and credit activities.

Accordingly, at a meeting of State Secretaries and Ministers convened by the Department it was decided not to open any MSY account w.e.f 1.4.97 and to revamp MSY by incorporating advocacy, empowerment through group formation and credit support through Rashtriya Mahila Kosh.
